The Lessons

FIRST READING: Acts 2:1-21

The people sit.

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles in English and German.

[1]When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. [2]And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. [3]Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. [4]All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Die Apostelgeschichte [5] Es waren aber Juden zu Jerusalem wohnend, die waren gottesfürchtige Männer aus allerlei Volk, das unter dem Himmel ist.
Da nun diese Stimme geschah, kam die Menge zusammen und wurden bestürzt; denn es hörte ein jeglicher, daß sie mit seiner Sprache redeten.
Sie entsetzten sich aber alle, verwunderten sich und sprachen untereinander: Siehe, sind nicht diese alle, die da reden, aus Galiläa?
Wie hören wir denn ein jeglicher seine Sprache, darin wir geboren sind?
Parther und Meder und Elamiter, und die wir wohnen in Mesopotamien und in Judäa und Kappadozien, Pontus und Asien, Phrygien und Pamphylien, Ägypten und an den Enden von Lybien bei Kyrene und Ausländer von Rom, Juden und Judengenossen, Kreter und Araber: wir hören sie mit unsern Zungen die großen Taten Gottes reden.

[12]All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, “What does this mean?” [13]But others sneered and said, “They are filled with new wine.”
[14]But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, “Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say.
[15]Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o’clock in the morning.
[16]No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

Die Apostelgeschichte [17] "Und es soll geschehen in den letzten Tagen, spricht Gott, ich will ausgießen von meinem Geist auf alles Fleisch; und eure Söhne und eure Töchter sollen weissagen, und eure Jünglinge sollen Gesichte sehen, und eure Ältesten sollen Träume haben; und auf meine Knechte und auf meine Mägde will ich in denselben Tagen von meinem Geist ausgießen, und sie sollen weissagen.
Und ich will Wunder tun oben im Himmel und Zeichen unten auf Erden: Blut und Feuer und Rauchdampf; die Sonne soll sich verkehren in Finsternis und der Mond in Blut, ehe denn der große und offenbare Tag des HERRN kommt.
Und soll geschehen, wer den Namen des HERRN anrufen wird, der soll selig werden."

PSALM: Psalm 104:25-35, 37
Remain seated.

[25]O LORD, how manifold are your works! *
In wisdom you have made them all;
the earth is full of your creatures.
[26]Yonder is the great and wide sea
with its living things too many to number, *
creatures both small and great.
[27]There move the ships,
and there is that Leviathan, *
which you have made for the sport of it.
[28]All of them look to you *
to give them their food in due season.
[29]You give it to them; they gather it; *
you open your hand, and they are filled with good things.
[30]You hide your face, and they are terrified; *
you take away their breath,
and they die and return to their dust.

[31]You send forth your Spirit, and they are created; *
and so you renew the face of the earth.
[32]May the glory of the LORD endure forever; *
may the LORD rejoice in all his works.
[33]He looks at the earth and it trembles; *
he touches the mountains and they smoke.
[34]I will sing to the LORD as long as I live; *
I will praise my God while I have my being.
[35]May these words of mine please him; *
I will rejoice in the LORD.
[37]Bless the LORD, O my soul. *
Hallelujah!

SECOND READING: 1 Corinthians 12:3b-13

The people sit.

A Reading from Paul's First letter to the Church in Corinth.

[3b]No one can say "Jesus is Lord" except by the Holy Spirit.
[4]Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; [5]and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; [6]and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. [7]To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. [8]To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, [9]to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, [10]to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. [11]All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses.

[12]For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. [13]For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and we were all made to drink of one Spirit.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

[19]When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." [20]After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. [21]Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." [22]When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. [23]If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."

THE CREED (BCP p. 358)
All stand.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father [and the Son],
who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified,
he has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Deacon: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.

we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord. In fulfillment of his true promise, the Holy Spirit came down from heaven, lighting upon the disciples, to teach them and to lead them into all truth; uniting peoples of many tongues in the confession of one faith and giving to your Church the power to serve you as a royal priesthood, and to preach the Gospel to all nations.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:, ♪ ♪ ♪

SANCTUS: "Holy, Holy, Holy" (Folk/Pruner) (American folk melody) (WLP 858)

Optional text:*

The Celebrant continues

Holy and gracious God: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and maker of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." ♪

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." ♪

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, Almighty God, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever. AMEN.

Please join us in praying with our siblings in Christ who are with us online and receiving communion spiritually.

Dearest Lord Jesus, we believe that you are truly present in the Sacrament of the Eucharist. We love you above all things and long for you in our souls. What do you know about Pentecost?

https://stmarksleroy.org/worship/pentecost/

Pentecost Sunday is a glorious day of celebration in the church. It is the day on which we remember the Holy Spirit appearing among the members of the first Christian community. This is the day on which we commemorate the descent of the Holy Spirit on the apostles and the day on which we celebrate the presence of the Holy Spirit within us, and among us.

Pentecost (also known as Whitsunday) is one of the seven principal feasts of the church year (in church tradition it's always been second in importance only to Easter), and it's good to remind ourselves that it's a feast: It is a day on which we are to figuratively "gorge" ourselves on its particular meaning in our lives as Christians.

With the events of this day the Easter season comes to an end. The Paschal candle, signifying the presence of Christ among us, which has burned in our midst since the Easter Vigil. Beginning with the Feast of Pentecost, the flame of love that burned in Christ alone, now burns in us by the power of the Holy Spirit. And the significance of Pentecost has a lot to do with why we come to church.

Why wear red??? The clergy wear RED vestments to signify the work of the Spirit. It is also a custom in many churches for the people in the congregation to wear RED on the Day of Pentecost as well. We wear RED to remind us of the fire of the Spirit.

It has been field-tested and is designed to take place in a social gathering where food is provided as a common currency to make people feel welcome. A warning of sorts, proper use of the curriculum will create situations of extreme emotion from participants as it creates a safe format for one to look inward and asses their own beliefs.
