

St. Paul's is heading to Akron's E.J. Thomas Hall on March 26 to see the Broadway Best Musical winner "Come from Away."

The New York Times Critics' Pick takes you into the heart of the remarkable true story of 7,000 passengers stranded after the 9/11 attacks in a small town in Newfoundland that ended up welcoming them. Cultures clashed and nerves ran high, but uneasiness turned into trust, music soared into the night, and gratitude grew into enduring friendships.

Newsweek cheers, "It takes you to a place you never want to leave!" And despite it being set during what was the worse of times, it offers an embracing story of optimism (and, yes, you likely will end up laughing and crying).

We can get a block of tickets for $60 each (with NO FEES!), but need to reserve the block soon. If you are interested in attending, please shoot an email to Schultze at pottermommy@aol.com or call 330-842-7660 no later than Dec. 15.
